Anne Frank was born in June 12, 1929, in Frankfurt am Main in Germany.

In 1933 a man called Adolf Hitler became the leader of Germany.

He and his Nazis were prejudiced against people who were Jewish.

Anne with her family decided to go to a secret room in the attic of a house in Amsterdam to hide from the Nazis because the family was Jewish. Anne and her family stayed in this place for two years.

For her birthday in June 1942 Anne received a diary where she wrote about her experience.

The diary contains Anne's hopes, dreams and fears.

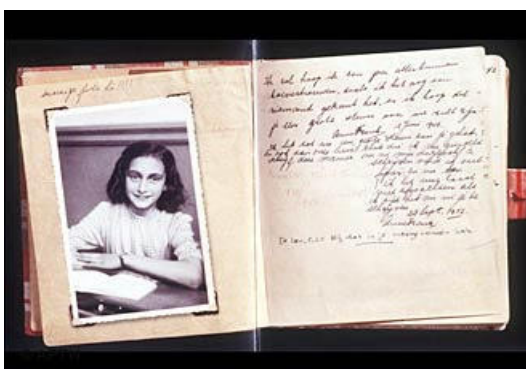

During the all period she was hidden in the room, Anne wrote her diary.

In the summer of 1942 the Nazis discovered the secret room: Anne and her sister Margot was ordered to go Germany in the concentration camp of Auschwitz called Belgen-Belsen where they worked under horrible conditions.

She died in the August of 1945 for illness.

Million of people also died in the concentration camp.

Her father Otto Frank edited her diary which was first published in The Netherlands in 1947 with the title "The diary of Anne Frank".
